

My Pet Care

Need to get away for a couple days but your stuck at home because you have to take care of your dog or cat? Maybe you have to go out of town for business but you can't seem to find someone reliable that will take care of you pets.

Well the answer is simple, My Pet Care is the obvious decision. Whenever you need to make that special trip or you're just to busy to give your pets the loving attention he or she needs give My Pet Care a call. They will give you the number of a pet sitter specialized for your pet care needs.

If you're getting your house remodeled and need a place for your animals, call or email MPC and we will mail back all the perfect places to board them. We even have clients that take animals in, for rescue or just to sit for a couple days to a week. If work or school has been taking up all of your time and you can't give your pets the care and attention they deserve then My Pet Care will always be there for you and your pets needs.
